We are so proud of you, Sarah!

*With Love,
Your Family*

Dear Samantha,

I consider your life to be the working definition of a miracle. Being born in perfect health and overcoming insurmountable pain.

You have had to deal with grief, and so many losses. Through it all you have persevered to reach all your academic, emotional and spiritual goals.

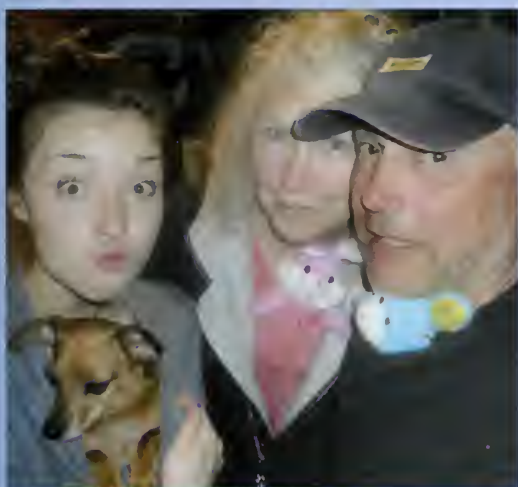

You broke yourself down and rebuilt yourself. Like a phoenix rising out of the ashes.

You have worked very hard and I know you will help hundreds of others heal from similar pain. You have exhibited so much strength and tenacity; you are a powerful young woman. I am very proud of you.

Keep singing, my little hummingbird. You are a leader with courage and keen insight. Carry on the spirit of the strength I see in you. Papa Randy and I are very proud of you, every aspect of you.

Love Forever,

Kakee Grammy and Papa Randy

To Samantha, my daughter:

P.J.'s bouncing in the crib.

Toy box with an open lid.

Soon doing her own hair.

I was her favorite, now she hangs out with teenagers like herself.

Calculus and good at sports.

The best I could hope for.

It kind of hurts.

She is growing into a woman taking care of herself.

Part of me would keep her for myself.

Hard to accept, she is borrowed not owned.

The best I could hope for is happening.

She is learning to fly well, away from my heart. I love you Sammi.

Love Daddy

A collage of 12 photographs arranged in a grid-like fashion, showing various moments from a person's life. The photos include: a young girl in a blue floral dress standing by a tree; a young girl in a black floral dress hanging from a tree branch; a young woman in a black top and pink skirt sitting on a bench; a close-up of a young child's face; a young woman in a purple shirt and helmet sitting on a bicycle; a group of people standing next to a purple car; a young woman in a black floral dress standing in front of a white door; a young woman in a white hoodie holding a yellow object; a young woman with a surprised expression holding a fan of US dollar bills; a young man playing an acoustic guitar with a young woman in the background; and two young women blowing kisses at the camera. The bottom left corner of the collage features the number '94'.

Lots of love,
Gramma

I'm so proud of you...

"Your time is limited, so don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't be trapped by dogma—which is living with the results of other people's thinking. Don't let the noise of others' opinions drown out your own inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition. They somehow already know what you truly want to become." ~ Steve Jobs

"My favorite animal is the turtle. The reason is that in order for the turtle to move, it has to stick its neck out. There are going to be times in your life when you're going to have to stick your neck out. There will be challenges and instead of hiding in a shell, you have to go out and meet them."

Peter,

I can't begin to tell you how proud I am of you and the man you have become. You have overcome so many obstacles in the past few years and your determination to succeed is tremendous. I know that you will go far in your life and always remember, being happy and proud of the person you are is most important.

With all my heart, Love Mom

For my son Peter: You are my son, my idol, and a tremendous young man. You made me the happiest and luckiest man on earth the day you were born. I think about that day everyday.

Your hard work, your beautiful heart, and your passion will lead you to greatness.

I love you more than you will ever know.

Dad

To my brother, Peter:

Despite all of the hard times, you never quit. You persisted, endured, persevered, and prevailed through whatever difficulties came your way. From all of your efforts and dedication to succeed, you proved to yourself and to everyone who loves you how truly incredible you are. I couldn't be more proud to call you my brother and hope you realize how unbelievably special you are. I love you lots and know that whatever you desire, you will work hard and accomplish your goals.

Love,
Bonnie

Peter,

You're a great brother and drink a lot of protein. Best of luck in college and gaining muscle mass!

Love you,
Joey
